

G.M.C. MEMBERS PLAN A CAMPAIGN

FUNDS NEEDED FOR STATE EN-CAMPMENT OF G. A. R. WILL BE RAISED.

Funds for the G. A. R. encampment which will be held in Moline will be raised by the Greater Moline committee during a whirlwind campaign. The first gun of the campaign will be fired Monday morning, April 5, and it will continue through Friday, April 9. Committees which will canvass the business men and general public were announced at the meeting of the committee today.

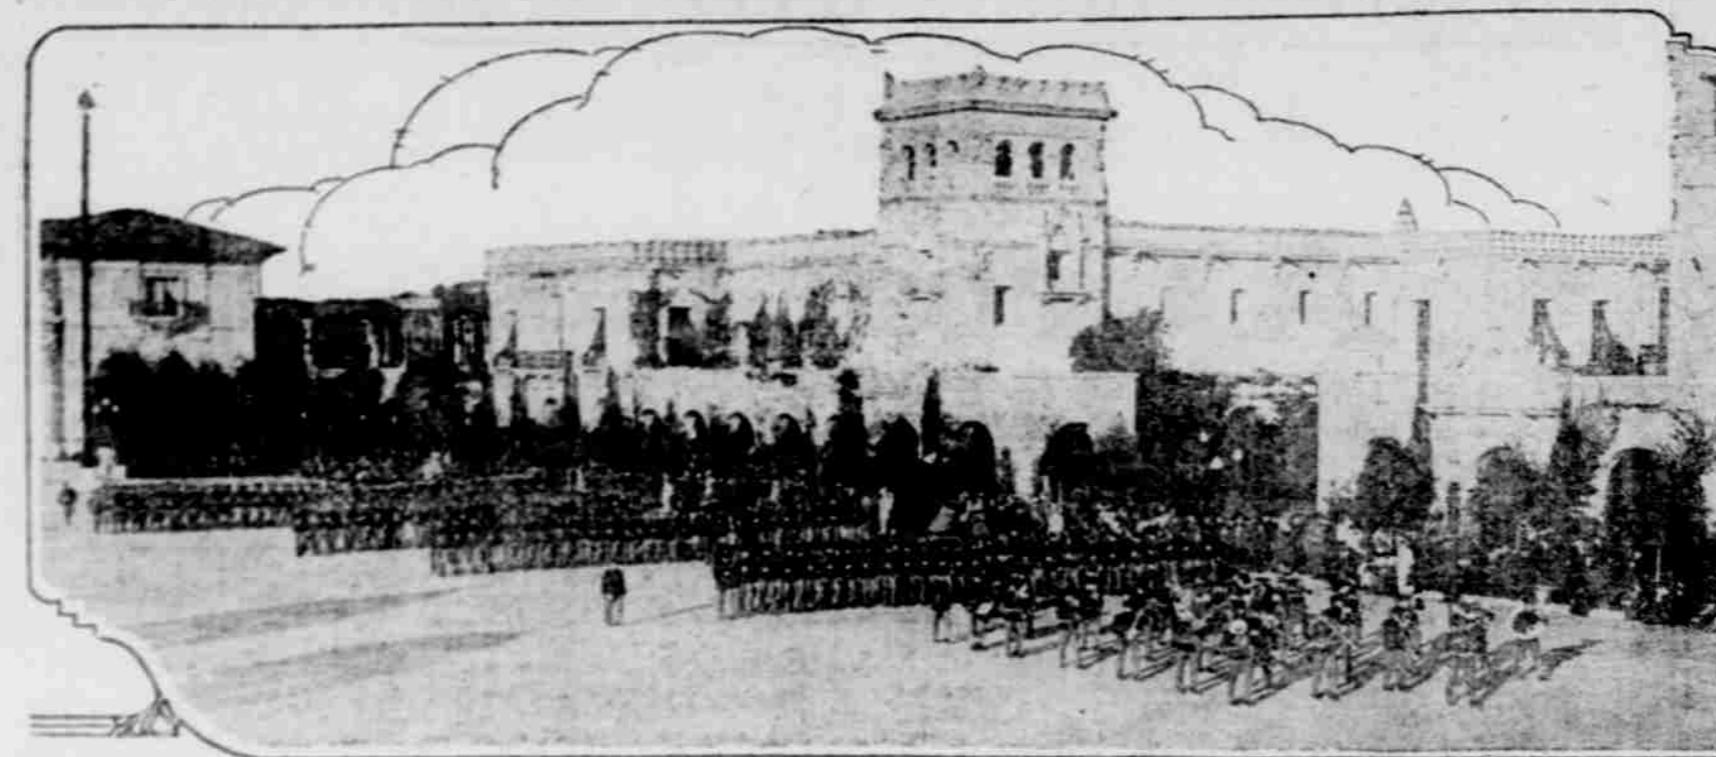

Following their meeting the G. M. C. members were invited to the new high school by Superintendent C. H. Maxson, where a thorough inspection was made of the structure.

Speakers who will be heard at the next meeting of the Greater Moline committee are A. T. Foster, A. G. Abraham, J. E. Nutt, G. E. Anderson and E. H. Hardesty.

THIRD HOUSE IS GUARDED ON ACCOUNT OF SMALLPOX

A third house has been placed under quarantine by the Moline health authorities in the belief that members of the family have been exposed to smallpox. It is near the two others at Eleventh street and Twelfth avenue. It is as rigidly guarded as the ones

TRACK MATERIAL GOOD, MOLINE COACH DECLARES

Thirty men are turning out daily for practice with the Moline high school track team. The work is being done in the high school gym, which is well equipped for the purpose. After the girls' basketball series is finished the boys can have the gym all afternoon and the squad probably will be considerably larger. Most of the men are freshmen and sophomores but there are several of the veterans who have upheld the honors of the school. In other seasons among the number out Coach Slough is well pleased with the material he has in hand and promises that the school will be a strong contender for tri-city and Big Eight honors.

THE BIG STORE ON THE BROADWALK

Our Easter selection of apparel

Suits $15 to $35

A grand showing at $20 and $25

We take pride in the fact that our customers are assured of satisfaction, not only when they purchase, but as long as they wear any of our garments.

Such suits and coats—it's hard to tell which to emphasize the strongest—the styles—the materials—the tailoring—these were garments that were sought with the deliberate intention of finding the very best values that could be found to sell at popular prices—and then fortune laughed aloud and put forth values that surpassed expectations in every respect.

This is a season of beautiful new hats
—more different than ever

The climax of millinery art exhibited in our Easter displays

Hats that are distinguished in character and line—that are confident in the grace of their own personality—all exquisitely perfect; they are entirely new and different—a showing notable for the vast varieties—for the luxury and individuality of the styles—for attractiveness of the values.

The great Sara bridge, on the Ganges river, has been opened to traffic, thus inaugurating direct railway passenger communication across the river. The bridge is the largest ever constructed by British engineers, with the possible exception of the Forth bridge in Scotland. The work was begun in 1908. The structure has a total length of 5,900 feet, and consists of 15 main spans and six land spans.
The cost is nearly $16,000,000.
